

THE REMARKETING PROCESS

Right after our customer hands over their used hardware equipment, each piece enters a specific process for remarketing. Our main goal is to introduce the goods once more to the international market and sell them with a profit.

CONTACT

Before getting started, we discuss together with each client the current situation and at which point in time we can provide support. The remarketing process begins as soon as our offer has been signed.

LOGISTICS

Our logistics team takes care of the overall rollback at your location and assures that the equipment is transported according to your requirements.
